Reference Page Made Easy: The Database Cite Function

In EBSCO databases

APA (American Psychological Assoc.)
References

In ProQuest databases

POTTER DOUBLE ACT CAST SPELL ON PUPILS

Abstract (summary) Translate [unavailable for this document]
Catherine Knox from Mencap said: "The pupils and teachers at Greenland Primary School and across Northern Ireland did an excellent job raising money - the Weasley twins were extremely impressed."
But Be Sure to Check for Errors and Don’t Forget to Format and Alphabetize

Common Errors

- Nothing should be in all caps
- Proper nouns must be capitalized

Finn, P. (2013, Jun 03). Capital trial for Somali pirates will begin in VA. This week. The Washington Post.

This one missed the full date. It should be (2013, May 10)

General Rules:

- Journal titles have to be italicized
- First word and proper nouns are the only words capitalized in the article title
- Nothing should be in all capital letters
- Date is formatted (Year, Month Day)
- Only the initial for first and any middle names of authors